

Empowerment/Skill

Working together as a group

We have more power with others because there is strength in numbers. If we assert our rights as a group, the government is more likely to listen to us. But we need to be able to trust other people in order to work together.

Empowerment/Skill

Self-Confidence

We all need self-confidence in order to speak up for ourselves. Self-confidence means believing in yourself and your abilities. It is having power in oneself.

Empowerment/Skill

Agency

Agency is the power to make decisions over our own lives.

Empowerment/Skill

Control

Control is having some power over
our environment
and situation.
